

CPR: Answers

1. What does CPR stand for?

Cardio Pulmonary Resuscitation.

2. When do you need to give CPR?

- A. The casualty is ~~conscious~~ / unconscious
- B. The casualty is ~~breathing~~ / not breathing

3. When giving a child CPR, what should you do first?

- A. Breaths
- B. Chest compressions

4. When giving an adult CPR, what should you do first?

- A. Breaths
- B. Chest compressions

5. How many chest compressions should you do at a time?

30

6. What piece of equipment can restart hearts?

An AED (Defibrillator)
